INTRODUCTION

One's ability to interact effectively with people may be the difference between success or failure in our work or personal life. Effective interaction starts with an understanding of our individual communication style.

This system was designed to provide you with information about your own communication style. This report can be readily shared with others.

Read and "star" those statements that are most important to you. Share this information with your friends both on and off the job.

CHECKLIST FOR COMMUNICATING

Most people are aware of and sensitive to the ways with which they prefer to be communicated. Many people find this section to be extremely accurate and important for enhanced interpersonal communication. This page provides other people with a list of things to DO when communicating with Dan. Read each statement and identify the 3 or 4 statements which are most important to him. We recommend highlighting the most important "DO's" and provide a listing to those who communicate with Dan most frequently.

Do:

- Support the results, not the person, if you agree.
- Support and maintain an environment where he can be efficient.
- Stick to business--let him decide if he wants to talk socially.
- Be clear, specific, brief and to the point.
- Provide a warm and friendly environment.
- Plan interaction that supports his dreams and intentions.
- Ask for his opinions/ideas regarding people.
- Provide facts and figures about probability of success, or effectiveness of options.
- Provide ideas for implementing action.
- Offer special, immediate and continuing incentives for his willingness to take risks.
- Read the body language--look for impatience or disapproval.

DON'TS ON COMMUNICATING

This section of the report is a list of things NOT to do while communicating with Dan. Review each statement with Dan and identify those methods of communication that result in frustration or reduced performance. By sharing this information, both parties can negotiate a communication system that is mutually agreeable.

Don't:

- Ask rhetorical questions, or useless ones.
- Leave decisions hanging in the air.
- Talk down to him.
- Let disagreement reflect on him personally.
- Drive on to facts, figures, alternatives or abstractions.
- Be dictatorial.
- Ramble on, or waste his time.
- Try to build personal relationships.
- Forget or lose things, be disorganized or messy, confuse or distract his mind from business.
- Be redundant.
- Come with a ready-made decision, or make it for him.
- Direct or order.

COMMUNICATION FLEXIBILITY

Since people are different, the needs they have, and that must be met, are also different. The information in this section will help you identify types of people and provide you with the strategies to meet their needs.

"Improving Your Communication Flexibility"

When interacting with a person who has the following characteristics:

- Fast-paced speech
- Comes on strong
- Impatient
- Direct
- Tries to control the situation

Factors that will improve communication with this Style:

- Be clear, specific, brief, and to the point and value their time.
- Stick to business - let them decide if they want to talk socially.
- Come prepared with all requirements, objectives, support material in well-organized "package."
- Present the facts logically and efficiently.
- Provide facts and figures about probability of success of ideas, or effectiveness of options.
- Take issue with facts, not the person, if you disagree.
- Support the results, not the person, if you agree.
- Support and maintain an environment where they can be efficient.
- Read the body language - look for impatience or disapproval.

Factors that will create tension or dissatisfaction with this Style:

- Over controlling the situation
- Telling them what to do

COMMUNICATION FLEXIBILITY

"Improving Your Communication Flexibility"

COMMUNICATION FLEXIBILITY

"Improving Your Communication Flexibility"

When interacting with a person who has the following characteristics:

- Speaks slowly
- Asks questions about facts and data
- Deliberates
- Uses few gestures
- Skeptical
- Suspicious

Factors that will improve communication with this Style:

- Prepare your "case" in advance.
- Approach them in a straightforward, direct way; stick to business.
- Make an organized contribution to their efforts; present specifics, and do what you say you can do.
- Take your time, but be persistent and use a sincere tone of voice.
- Draw up a scheduled approach to implementing action with step-by-step timetable; assure them that there won't be surprises.
- Follow through, if you agree.
- Make an organized presentation of your position, if you disagree.
- Give them time to verify reliability of your actions; be accurate, realistic.
- Provide solid, tangible, practical evidence.
- Minimize risk by providing guarantees over a period of time.
- Give them time to be thorough, when appropriate.

Factors that will create tension or dissatisfaction with this Style:

- Being too blunt and direct
- Forcing them to take risks

SITUATIONAL STRATEGIES

Use this page for ideas on how to control the interaction between yourself and a customer when the following situations arise. When a customer is upset, you must first gain control of the situation - then read the customer's style and apply the appropriate strategy.

PERSON

Skeptical, Suspicious

Nervous, irritable, high strung

Pessimistic, grouchy, complaining

Egotistical, opinionated, high hat

Argumentative, blustering

Silent, secretive

STRATEGY

Agree on minor points and expand. Be conservative in assertions.

Use a quiet, tactful, soothing manner.

Listen patiently, ask questions to find out their real concerns.

Flatter their ego. Concentrate on getting results.

Create response by challenging in a sincere manner.

Be more personal than usual to draw them out.

THE SUCCESS INSIGHTS® WHEEL

The Success Insights® Wheel is a powerful tool popularized in Europe. In addition to the text you have received about your behavioral style, the Wheel adds a visual representation that allows you to:

- View your natural behavioral style (circle).
- View your adapted behavioral style (star).
- Note the degree you are adapting your behavior.
- If you filled out the Work Environment Analysis, view the relationship of your behavior to your job.

Notice on the next page that your Natural style (circle) and your Adapted style (star) are plotted on the Wheel. If they are plotted in different boxes, then you are adapting your behavior. The further the two plotting points are from each other, the more you are adapting your behavior.

If you are part of a group or team who also took the behavioral assessment, it would be advantageous to get together, using each person's Wheel, and make a master Wheel that contains each person's Natural and Adapted style. This allows you to quickly see where conflict can occur. You will also be able to identify where communication, understanding and appreciation can be increased.
